Description

Nestled in the peaceful mountain village of Kentro, between Kambos and Tseria, this charming traditional stone house offers a wonderful opportunity to create a home in one of the most authentic and characterful settings of the Mani.

Full of traditional features and old-world atmosphere, the property currently comprises one bedroom, a living room, a kitchen and a bathroom. On the lower level, two additional rooms offer exciting possibilities: they could be used as further bedrooms, guest accommodation, or transformed into a separate apartment, subject to the necessary permissions. A further apothiki provides useful storage space.

The house is currently furnished in a traditional style, reflecting the simplicity and warmth of an older Greek village home. With thoughtful renovation and a little imagination, it could become a beautiful traditional Greek mountain dwelling — retaining its original character while offering a more personal and comfortable way of living.

Outside, a small garden provides a lovely private space to enjoy the extraordinary surroundings. From here, the views stretch across the rolling hills towards the sea, which is not directly visible, while the majestic Taygetos mountains rise behind the village, creating a truly spectacular natural backdrop.

Kentro itself consists of four small, individual settlements, cherished by traditional inhabitants and increasingly appreciated by those seeking an authentic mountain village lifestyle. This is a place where the pace is slower, the surroundings are peaceful, and the character of the Mani remains very much alive.

Whether envisioned as a permanent home, a peaceful holiday retreat or a charming renovation project, this property offers the opportunity to become part of a genuinely traditional Greek village setting.

A house with soul, wonderful views and the potential to become something truly special.
